

Laureate
1952

*Our lives are songs; God writes the words,
And we set them to music at pleasure;
And the song grows glad, or sweet or sad
As we choose to fashion the measure;
We must write the music, whatever the song,
Whatever its rhyme or meter;
And if it is sad, we can make it glad,
Or if sweet, we can make it sweeter.*

Foreword

*"And from out of the past
Where forgotten things belong
You keep coming back
Like a song."*

The staff of the 1952 "LAUREATE" offers you this Album of Songs with the earnest hope that as you hear the records played, you may relive once again your happy days in Hendersonville High School and will recall them as you would a beautiful song.

ARTHUR COOLEY, Editor

"This is our story"

"This is our song"

"For

You . . ."

The Senior Class takes great pleasure in dedicating this edition of the LAUREATE to Colonel E. A. Gans, United States Army Retired, their friend and counsellor, whose efforts are always directed toward the welfare of Hendersonville High School.

We students shall always remember him for his unusual teaching techniques and for his firm and fair administration of the school with a minimum of interruption during the principal's absence last fall.

SUPERLATIVES

Best all-round Arthur Cooley and Marguerite Briggs seem to be enjoying the company of popular Tommy White and Sue Sutton.

for Words"

Witty Gilmer Proctor and Barbara Poteet have just told non-chalant Mary Louise Shytle and Broadus Long one of their famous jokes.

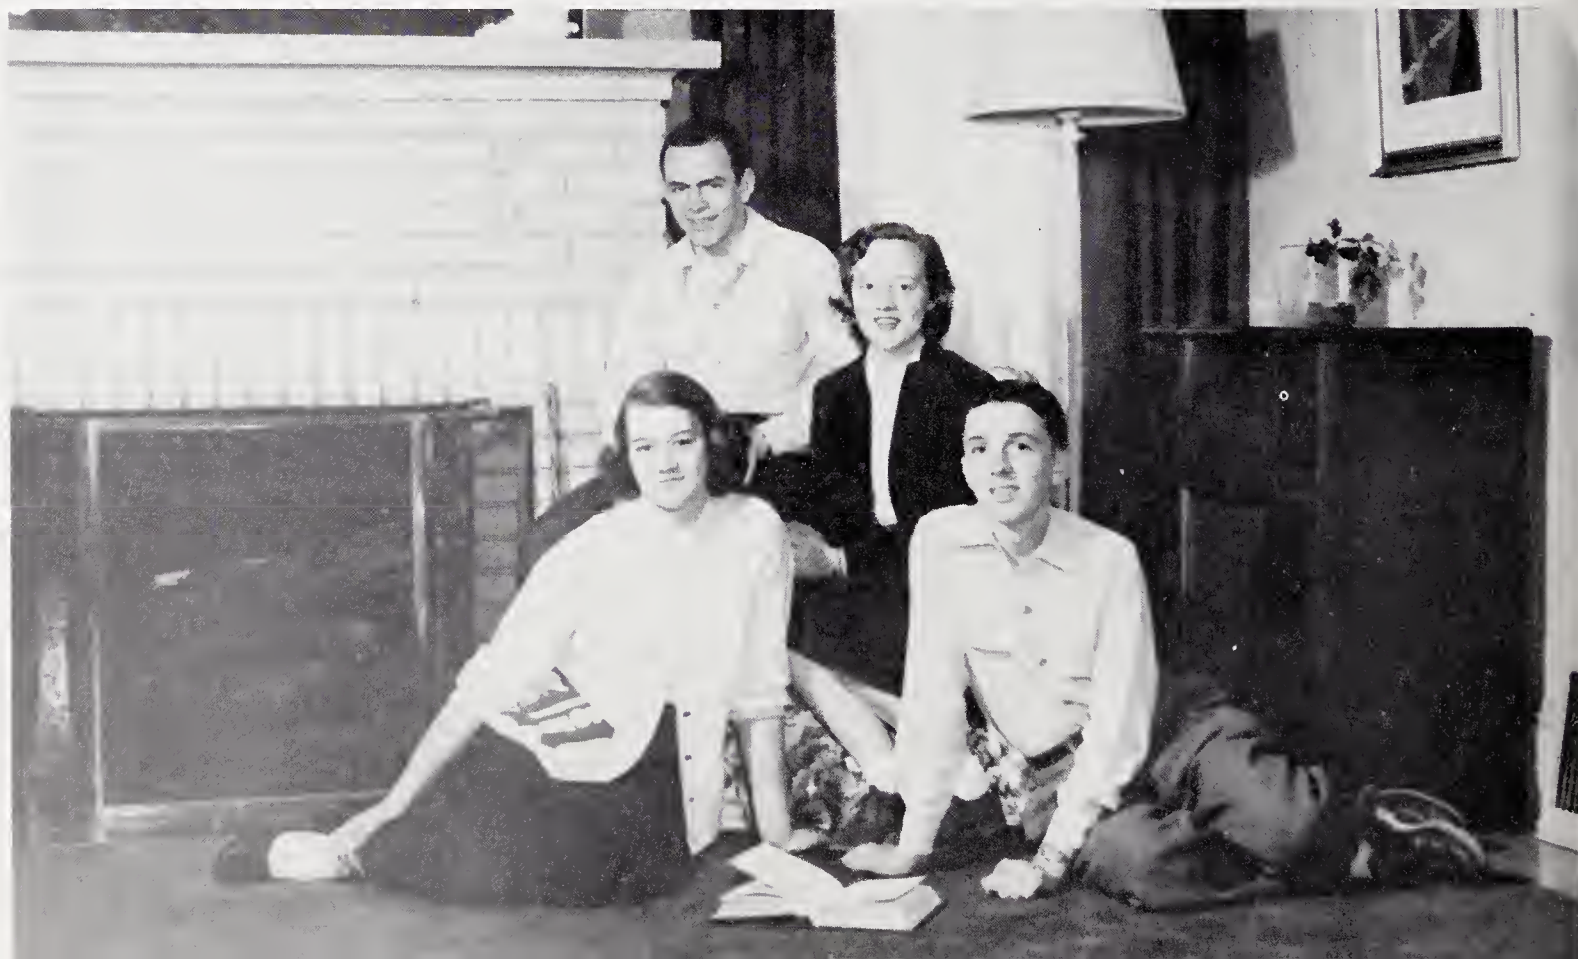

An evening of fun at one of the gang's house, finds athletic Caroline Ray and George Powell getting together with friendly Jeanne Trice and Alan Painter.

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Dependable Kenneth Hill and Nancy Merrill seem to be enjoying an hour of study with intellectual Arvid Seiber and Amy Fisher.

"Our song is sung,

Our story told."

As you close this Album of Songs, may the treasured memories between its covers live deep within your heart and remain with you down through the coming years!

ARTHUR COOLEY, Editor

"The song is ended, but the melody lingers on."

HENDERSON COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 3258 00087 5703

For Reference

Not to be taken from this library

Our lives are songs; God writes the words,

And we set them to music at pleasure;

And the song grows glad, or sweet or sad

As we choose to fashion the measure;

We must write the music, whatever the song,

Whatever its rhyme or meter;

And if it is sad, we can make it glad,

Or if sweet, we can make it sweeter.
